He said that Victim [redacted] Identified the suspect as her [redacted] Suspect Dana Lindeman. [redacted] told him that the suspect broke in to her residence and assault her and her [redacted] Victim [redacted] cutting him with a large knife. She said that the suspect had left a minute before the deputies arrived.

Deputy Valento said that the deputies broadcasted the information over Sheriff Radio and a patrol unit subsequently saw the suspect. A pursuit was initiated by the patrol unit when the suspect refused to stop. The Pursuit lasted for approximately 10 minutes and was subsequently terminated by the Watch Commander. He said that Deputies [redacted] and Sunagawa, returned to the location to obtain additional information. While interviewing Victim [redacted] the suspect returned to the location in his 2001 Silver Chev. Suburban and was pointed out to the deputies by the victim. The deputies ran to their patrol unit, and as they got close the suspect deliberately rammed the patrol unit and tore off the passenger door. The suspect drove west bound 127th Street and out of sight. Within one minute the suspect returned to the location and stopped in an south west direction at the intersection of 127th Street and Glasgow Place. The suspect exited his vehicle armed and confronted the deputies. Deputy Valento said the that Deputies [redacted] and Sunagawa were forced to confront the suspect and fearing for their safety used deadly force, firing their department authorized hand guns.

For further information detailing Deputies Valento's and Valencia's, and assisting deputies actions, see reports submitted by the deputies. The reports will be a permanent part of this file.

Sergeant Mark Winters and Detective Sam Dendecker, assisted in the investigation and were assigned to conduct the scene investigation. (See their supplemental report detailing their investigation)

At 0525 hours, investigators interviewed Victim [redacted] at the Lennox Sheriff's Station. The interview was tape recorded and will be a permanent part of the file. The following is a summary of the interview:

Victim [redacted] said that she has been [redacted] from the suspect for approximately one year. She said that she filed a retraining order on him, because in the recent passed he had stocked and threatened her. She said that the suspect has been arrested by Lennox Station Deputies for threatening her. She said that Victim [redacted] is her [redacted] and that the suspect has been threatening them with harm.

Victim [redacted] said that on this date she and Victim [redacted] went out, having secured her residence before leaving. She said they were gone for a couple of hours and when they returned at approximately 0100 hours, she found that someone had broken into her residence through the south east bedroom window. While she and Victim [redacted] were inspecting the damage, the suspect who had been hiding in the house, approached them from behind. The suspect began threatening to kill Victim [redacted] while displaying a knife in his hand. Suspect Lindeman then swung with the knife at Victim [redacted] while standing within one and a half feet of him. The suspect cut Victim [redacted] on the left cheek and shoulder area.

When Suspect Lindeman stepped out of the room, she immediately closed the door and with the help of Victim [redacted] they were able to keep Suspect Lindeman out. She said she was able to dial 911 and relayed what was occurring at her residence. She said that Suspect Lindeman attempted to kick the door open, but was unable to enter. She said that within two minutes the deputies arrived. She said that she described the suspect to the deputies and they initiated a broadcast to other patrol units.

Victim [redacted] said that while the deputies were at her residence, she went outside and look for her two dogs with assistance of one of the deputies. She said that after a few minutes of looking for her dogs, she started walking back toward her front door, when the suspect returned, driving his Chev. Suburban. Fearing the suspect was going to harm her with his car, she yelled at the deputies and pointed out the suspect. She said she saw the suspect drive west bound and hit the patrol unit right front door.

Victim [redacted] said that she was standing in her front door way talking with the deputies, when the suspect again returned. She said he stopped the car at an angle at the corner and exited. She said she immediately saw what she believed was a hand gun in the suspect's hands. She immediately went inside her residence to hide thinking the suspect was going to shoot her. She said that she heard approximately 6 to 9 gun shots and thought that the suspect had shot the deputies. After a few moments the deputies came in and asked her if she was alright. She said that she was told that the suspect had been shot. Victim [redacted] stated she heard the deputies yelled at the suspect "drop your weapon" several times before the shooting started.

Victim [redacted] said that when the suspect exited the vehicle, she saw his hands, and the first thing that came to mind was that he had a gun. She said that the suspect held the object in both hands extended away from his body in a semi shooting position. Victim [redacted] said the suspect did own a .380 caliber handgun and had threaten to kill her and then shoot himself. She stated that she has a restraining order against the suspect since she and the suspect ended their [redacted] several months ago and he started to follow her from work and made death threats to her [redacted] She was unable to add any further information and the interview was terminated.

At 0600 hours, Investigators interviewed Victim [redacted] His interview was tape recorded. The following is a summary of his statements.

Victim [redacted] said it was sometime after midnight when he and his [redacted] arrived at her home. He said [redacted] called him to one of the rear bedrooms, when she noticed someone had broken the window and pulled the security bars back. While they were looking out of the window, the suspect suddenly appeared at the bedroom doorway with a knife in his hand. He said the suspect threatened to kill them both and stated "I came here tonight and I'm not leaving, this is between me and you. It's no use trying to use the phone, I cut the lines." He said the suspect then lunged at him with the knife and cut his left cheek and shirt with the serrated edge. He struggled with the suspect and was able to push him out into the hallway and close the door. He said he held the door shut while [redacted] called the police. While [redacted] was on the phone, the suspect kicked the door, trying to force his way back in. He said they held the door closed until deputies arrived and began searching for the suspect who had left.

Victim [redacted] said as they were at the front door of the residence [redacted] saw the suspect drive up in his truck. He said the deputies exited the residence and walked towards their patrol car, when the suspect sped away crashing into the police car passenger door and continue down the street. A few minutes later as he was about to enter the house the suspect returned and stopped at the corner. He said he saw the suspect exit his truck and began to approach one of the deputies. Victim [redacted] said he heard one of the deputies yell out to the suspect to let him see his hands and also heard "drop your weapon" before the shots rang out and saw the suspect fall to the ground. Victim [redacted] believed he saw the suspect shoot the deputy as he approached, because he saw the suspect thrust both arms out in front of him as if he had a gun.

Victim [redacted] said he has received several threats from the suspect and knew the suspect has threatened [redacted] since they began [redacted]

Investigators observed an approximately 2 ½" scratch on the left cheek of Victim [redacted] Investigators also noted that his shirt had been cut in two places near the upper left chest area. No other wounds were observed

At 0758 hours, Investigators interviewed Deputy Mark Allen Sunagawa #[redacted] Also present in the interview was his representative attorney, Mr.Shinee. The interview was tape recorded and will be a permanent part of this file. The following is a summary of the interview:

Deputy Sunagawa stated that he was the book man and his partner Deputy [redacted] the driver, working unit [redacted] early morning shift. He said they were assigned to responded to the location as an emergency call for service. Upon their arrival they noticed that the front door to the residence was open. He said they entered the home believing the suspect was still inside and found the victims in a rear bedroom. The suspect had fled the location and a broadcast was dispatched, describing the suspect and his vehicle.

Deputy Sunagawa said they heard another radio car broadcast that they were in pursuit of the suspect vehicle, but was terminated by the watch commander. He, his partner and the victims all walked outside as he continuing to gather information in regards to the assault of Victim [redacted] when suddenly Victim [redacted] screamed "there he is !". They turned to see the suspect vehicle turn onto 127th street. As they approached their patrol car the suspect accelerated and struck their passenger door as it passed. Again they issued a broadcast. Unable to pursue, they stood by their radio car, examining the damage, when again the victim screamed "there he is again...he's going to kill us!". The suspect turned the corner in their direction and stopped at the intersection. Deputy Sunagawa moved out of the street to the north while his partner Deputy [redacted] moved south. As they approached the suspect vehicle, with their guns drawn, the suspect exited his truck. He said he first heard gunshots and then saw the suspect pointing an object at Deputy [redacted] He recalls it was a black object wrapped in a black cloth around both hands. Believing the suspect was shooting at his partner, he fired at the suspect. He said he fired several rounds, then re-loaded. He said he saw the suspect fall to the ground with his back to them. While on the ground the suspect still held on to the object wrapped in a black cloth. They both yelled commands for the suspect to drop the object and show them his hands as they approached. The suspect rolled over from his side and again pointed the object in their direction. Fearing they were going to be shot he fired again at the suspect then took cover behind the front hood of the suspect's vehicle.

Deputy Sunagawa stated that at no time did he hear anything said by the suspect and that the entire incident took seconds. A ambulance was requested and the suspect was transported to the hospital were he expired. He said the object the suspect was pointing at them, was later determined to be a large knife wrapped in a black cloth.

Investigators examined the weapon used by Deputy Sunagawa and found it to be a Departmental issued Beretta 9mm, serial # BER[redacted]Z. The weapon was unloaded in the presence of Investigators and found the magazine to contain (15) fifteen live 9mm rounds.

At 0723 hours, Deputy [redacted] # [redacted] was interviewed at Lennox Sheriff's Station. The interview was tape recorded and will a permanent part of this file. Deputy [redacted] was represented by his attorney, Dick Shinee. The following is a summary of the interview:

Deputy [redacted] said that he was working with Deputy Mark Sunagawa and they were assigned to patrol unit [redacted] early mornings. He said that he was driving ands during the shift they were dispatched to an emergent call at the location regarding a " disturbance and man with the knife" call. They were dispatched to responded Code 3 (red lights and siren) to the location.

Deputy [redacted] said that when they arrived he stopped the patrol car in the middle of the street in front of the location (residence). He said that the front door of the location was open and he and his partner drew the service weapons and approached the door. He said he yelled out "Sheriff Department" as they entered the house. He said he continued to announce himself as they walked through the house. When they reached the south east bedroom a male stepped out and they pointed their guns at him thinking he maybe the male suspect mentioned in the initial call. Within seconds a female stepped out and yelled that the male was not the suspect. When asked where the suspect had gone, the female, later identified as Victim [redacted] said she did not know, but thought the suspect maybe in the rear yard.

Deputy [redacted] said that he and his partner, Deputy Sunagawa, checked the interior of the location and then went to the rear yard to check for the suspect. After clearing the house and rear yard, he contacted Victim [redacted] and acquired the suspect and vehicle description information. He then broadcasted this information to other Sheriff's patrol units via Sheriff's radio frequency. He said the suspect was identified by name, Dana Lindeman and the vehicle as a newer gray color Suburban with dealer paper plates. He said deputies in parol unit 32, told him over Sheriff's radio that they past the described vehicle on Ocean Gate Dr. approximately 30 seconds prior. He said the patrol unit then left to check that location.

Deputy [redacted] said that he then contacted Victims [redacted] and [redacted] and interviewed them to obtain information of what had occurred. He said that Victim [redacted] told him that the suspect is her [redacted] and did not belong at the house. She told him that she and her [redacted] Victim [redacted] had gone to the movies and upon returning found the suspect inside the house.

Deputy [redacted] related the same information he obtained from Victim [redacted] that Victim [redacted] related to investigators. She told him that the suspect continually threatened to kill Victim [redacted]

Deputy [redacted] said that while he was interviewing the victims, he heard a patrol unit broadcast over Sheriff Radio that he/she was following the suspect in the described vehicle.

The patrol unit then went in pursuit of the suspect in the nearby area and after a few minutes the pursuit was subsequently was terminated. He said at this time he and his partner, Deputy Sanagawa, stepped out in the front porch area followed by the victims. Victim [redacted] then asked him if the suspect had been caught by the patrol units. Deputy [redacted] continued to talk to Victim [redacted] and within three to four minutes, she yells out to the deputies "there he is" pointing to the corner. Deputy [redacted] said they looked and saw the described suspect vehicle going south bound on Glasglow Place, which is the service road adjacent to La Cienga Bl.. He said the suspect turns west bound on 127th Street and almost comes to a stop. He said he is sure the suspect looked directly at them as he drove slowly.

Deputy [redacted] said he and his partner, Deputy Sanagawa, started to go to their patrol car felling that they may have to chase the suspect. He said based on the information he obtained from Victims [redacted] and [redacted] the suspect was now wanted for Assault with A Deadly Weapon 245 P.C., Knife. He said when he and his partner got within ten feet of the patrol car, the suspect accelerated and hit the passenger door of the patrol car as he, suspect, passed on the passenger side. He said that the patrol car is pushed and they had to jump back away from the car. He said the suspect almost ripped the passenger door off the patrol car with the Suburban. The patrol car was stopped in the middle of the street with the amber lights flashing. Deputy [redacted] said he immediately broadcasted what had just occurred over the Sheriff's Radio, Patch system, and advised patrol units of the direction of the suspect and vehicle.

Deputy [redacted] said that while he is still broadcasting on the radio, Victim [redacted] yells out "Oh my God, his back and his going to kill us". He said that the suspect returned within 20 seconds. He said he and his partner were standing at the rear of the patrol car on the street examining the damage when the heard the victim scream. He said the suspect was traveling at a high rate of speed on Glasglow Pl. and was about to turn onto 127th Street. He said he felt the suspect was going to hit them with the vehicle, so he ran to his right (south bound) toward the sidewalk in an attempted to protect himself. He said his partner, Deputy Sanagawa, ran north bound to the other side of the street. He said that there were no objects near him that he could use for cover.

Deputy [redacted] said that the suspect came to a skidding stop at the corner and he, Deputy [redacted] pulled out his service hand gun as he ran. He said he saw the suspect exited the Chev. Suburban from the drivers door and he could see that the suspect had a black towel or T-shirt over both hands as though he was concealing something. He said the suspect held both hands together as though he was holding a gun and brought them up in front of him to eye level, into a shooting stance. Fearing he was going to be shot by the suspect, he fired his hand gun at the suspect 4 to 6 times. He said almost at the same time he heard his partner shoot also. He said he did not know exactly where is partner was, but knew his was somewhere to his left. He said he saw the suspect turn and fall to the ground on his left side. At the same time he looked at his gun and did a tactical reload, knowing he had fired his gun. He dropped the magazine clip from his gun and reloaded with a fully loaded one. He said he reloaded because of his training on tactical reloading. He then started to broadcast over his radio , emergency traffic "998 Officer involved in a shooting". He said that they continually yelled at the suspect "let me see your hands". He said that before he could finish broadcasting he saw the suspect, who was in a fetal position with his back to him, look at him and began to turn at him. He said he saw the suspect's hands, and saw that the suspect was trying to pull of the black cloth off and at the same time point at him over his right side. He felt that the suspect was attempting to remove the black cloth from the gun and shoot him. He immediately engaged the suspect again and fired his hand gun at the suspect. He did not recall the number of times he fired, but said he looked down and saw that the slide on his gun was locked back. He said he looked at his partner and yelled out "I am dry". He then immediately reloaded his gun with a fresh clip and stood ready. He said the suspect then flipped the object from his hands at him and that when he saw the knife come out of the black cloth. He said the knife landed within four feet of him.

Deputy [redacted] said that he again broadcasted to the patrol units about the situation and requested paramedics and patrol units to assist.

Deputy [redacted] said the area was not well illuminated. He said the patrol car's head lights, spot lights and flashing amber lights were on. He said the suspect could have easily seen who they were. He said the second time the suspect returned, he was illuminated more with the suspect vehicles head lights as he ran for cover. He added that after the incident he was approached by a Hawthrone Police Officer, who told him that he witnesses the suspect crash into the patrol unit. He said the officer told him he attempted to catch the suspect but was unable to locate him. He said he gave the officer name to the handling unit.

Deputy [redacted] uses an H&K 45 caliber hand gun, USP model SN [redacted] and carries one round in the chamber and 12 rounds in the magazine. He said he carries five magazines, one in the gun, two in the front of his belt and two in the back of his gun belt. He said he used two magazines at the location. In the presence of the investigators, Deputy [redacted] un-holstered his weapon and removed the magazine and the bullet in the chamber. There were 12 total rounds. Deputy [redacted] could not add any further information and the interview was terminated.

Deputies [redacted] and Sanagawa, service hand guns were given to Deputy Jeff Wally, from the Sheriff's Crime Lab Firearms Section. He will transport the guns to the lab for further testing.

At 0900 hours, Investigators contacted Witness [redacted] at her residence. Sergeant Bornegrebe, from the Professional Standards and Training Bureau, was also present during the interview. The interview was tape recorded and will be a permanent part of this file. The following is a summary of the interview:

Witness [redacted] said that she was inside her residence at approximately 0100 hours, when she heard the patrol unit drive up. She said she looked out her living room window and was able to see Victim [redacted] talking to the deputies. She said that she saw a gray color vehicle drive up and hit the patrol cars passenger' door. After this she stopped looking out and moments later heard a car drive up and then heard approximately 10 gun shots. She said she did not see anything when she heard the gun shots. She was unable to add any further information and the interview was terminated.

On 5/17/01 at 0900 hours, Sergeant Muniz attended the autopsy conducted by Dr. P. Glinecki at the Los Angeles Medical Examiners Office. Dr. Glenicki indicated that he found 33 bullet wounds, both entry and exit wounds, on Suspect's Lindeman's body. He said that the bullet wounds were both on the front and back of the legs and upper torso. He said that there were 16 entry wounds on the body and that 12 projectiles stayed inside the body.

Dr. Glenicki said that the Aorta, Liver, Kidneys and Intestines were the major organs which were penetrated by the projectiles. He said that the cause of death was massive bleeding which was caused by the gun shot wounds.

Dear Captain Merriman:

Re: J.S.I.D. File # 01-0413
L.A.S.D. File # 001-05763-0384-057

The Justice System Integrity Division of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office has completed its review of the May 13, 2001 fatal shooting of 30-year-old Dana Mica Lindeman by Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputies [redacted] and Mark Sunagawa. We have concluded that Deputies [redacted] and Sunagawa acted lawfully in self-defense and in defense of others.

The following analysis is based upon a thorough examination of the 128-page report submitted to this office on November 27, 2001 by Sergeant Rudy Ortega of the Sheriff's Homicide Bureau. A total of 247 photographs were also submitted and reviewed. The District Attorney's Command Center was notified of the shooting May 13, 2001 at 2:15 a.m. Deputy District Attorney Thomas Krag and District Attorney Senior Investigator [redacted] responded to the location of the shooting and were given a briefing and a walk-through by Lieutenant Donald Bear of the Sheriff's Department Homicide Bureau.

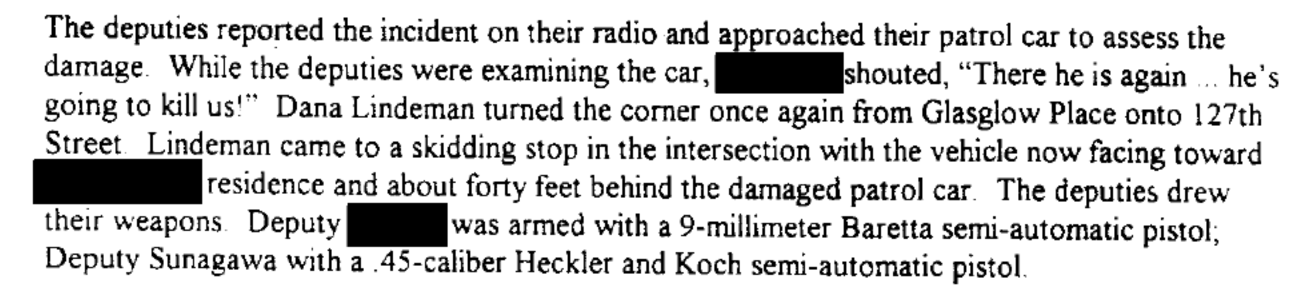

District Attorney personnel participated in interviews of civilian witnesses on the date of the incident at the shooting scene and at the Lennox Sheriff's Station. Additionally, District Attorney Senior Investigator [redacted] was present at Lindeman's autopsy conducted at the Los Angeles County Department of Coroner on May 17, 2001.

FACTUAL ANALYSIS

On May 13, 2001, at about 1:00 a.m., 27-year-old [redacted] and her [redacted] 26-year-old [redacted] returned to her residence located at [redacted] West 127th Street, Hawthorne. [redacted] entered her home and immediately noticed that someone had broken in by forcing open a bedroom window. [redacted] called [redacted] into the bedroom to show him the damage. As they observed the broken window, Dana Lindeman suddenly appeared at the

The deputies reported the incident on their radio and approached their patrol car to assess the damage. While the deputies were examining the car, [redacted] shouted, "There he is again ... he's going to kill us!" Dana Lindeman turned the corner once again from Glasglow Place onto 127th Street. Lindeman came to a skidding stop in the intersection with the vehicle now facing toward [redacted] residence and about forty feet behind the damaged patrol car. The deputies drew their weapons. Deputy [redacted] was armed with a 9-millimeter Baretta semi-automatic pistol; Deputy Sunagawa with a .45-caliber Heckler and Koch semi-automatic pistol.

Dana Lindeman stepped from driver's door of the Suburban as the two deputies approached. The deputies saw that Lindeman had a black cloth wrapped around his hands as if he was concealing something, possibly a firearm. Dana Lindeman moved to the left front corner of the Suburban and immediately took a shooting stance holding both of his hands together at eye level with his arms outstretched toward the deputies. Nearly simultaneously, the two deputies, in fear of their lives, fired at Lindeman. Lindeman fell to the pavement on his left side, still clutching the cloth covered object in his hands . Both deputies immediately reloaded their weapons and ordered Lindeman to show them his hands and drop the weapon. Lindeman, still holding the obscured object in his hands, rolled over toward the deputies and again pointed his arms at them. The deputies again fired their weapons at Lindeman. Moments later, Lindeman flipped the cloth covered object toward Deputy [redacted] The object was an opened lock-blade folding knife with a six-inch blade.

Lindeman was subsequently transported by paramedics to Harbor General Hospital where he arrived at 1:51 a.m. He was pronounced dead by an emergency room physician at 2:10 a.m. Dr. Paul Gliniecki, Department of Coroner, conducted an autopsy on the body of Dana Lindeman and ascribed the cause of death to multiple gunshot wounds. He determined that Lindeman sustained twenty individual gunshot wounds.

Thirty-seven expended projectile casings were recovered at the scene of the shooting. Twenty-one were .45 caliber, sixteen were 9-millimeter.

CONCLUSION

California law permits the use of deadly force in self-defense or in the defense of another if it reasonably appears to the person claiming the right of self-defense or the defense of another that he actually and reasonably believed that he was in imminent danger of great bodily injury or death People v. Williams (1977) 75 Cal. App. 3d 731.

In protecting himself or another, a person may use all force which he believes reasonably necessary and which would appear to a reasonable person, in the same or similar circumstances, to be necessary to prevent the injury which appears to be imminent. CALJIC 5.30. 5.32.

Actual danger is not necessary to justify the use of deadly force in self-defense. If one is confronted by the appearance of danger which one believes, and a reasonable person in the same position would believe, would result in death or great bodily injury, one may act upon those circumstances. The right of self-defense is the same whether the danger is real or merely apparent. People v. Toledo (1948) 85 Cal. App. 2d 577.

Dana Lindeman clearly provoked his shooting death by engaging in violently assaultive and threatening conduct in the minutes leading to his fatal confrontation with Deputies [redacted] and Sunagawa. He had committed a residential burglary at the home of his [redacted] While armed with a large knife, he lay in wait for her arrival. After [redacted] and [redacted] returned home, he attacked both of his victims with his knife and fled the residence only after his victims put an interior bedroom door between themselves and their attacker and called the police. Lindeman engaged in a high-speed police pursuit and escaped after a decision by a watch commander to end the chase due to dangerous street conditions. Lindeman then returned to the scene of his earlier attack and crashed into a patrol car before fleeing the scene once again. Finally, Lindeman drove back to the scene and confronted two Sheriff's deputies by appearing to point a gun directly at them. Based on all of the circumstances, the deputies reasonably believed that Lindeman was attacking them with a firearm and they defended themselves and each other from this apparent imminent threat upon their lives.

Having concluded that Deputies [redacted] and Sunagawa acted lawfully, we are closing our file and will take no further action in this matter.

Very truly yours,
